

SDG Discussion Guide

Colossians 2:11-15

November 1, 2020

Guideline:

Before you begin, pray. Ask God to enlighten you to show you where he has been at work and present in your past week through events, places, and people. Ask Him to enliven and guide your group in your reading and discussion.

Next, read aloud and slowly Colossians 2:11-15. As you can, take turns and read aloud these verses again, this time from a different bible translation.

For starters:

How are you doing right now, really?

What is one thing you have learned about yourself during this pandemic?

See the following questions that may assist you in your discussion of the Scripture.

1. What is a point or two that stayed with you from the message this past Sunday, November 1, "Lessons in Faith from a Dying Lake Part 3"?
2. What are your attitudes and relationships like when your sin hinders you? How has your sin had control over you in the past?
3. What does it mean to you that you have been forgiven, your sins are canceled, and your debt has been released so that you are reconciled to Christ?
4. What does spiritual circumcision or baptism mean to you? What should it mean? What's your experience of the new life and freedom imparted to you?
5. How do we share in Christ's joys and pains? How can you tell others that Jesus nailed your sins on the cross, disarming the evil of the world?
6. In what ways do you see God working in the circumstances before you now? How are you a vessel in which God moves and displays His wonder to others? How can you be more?
7. How can the group be praying for you now?
