Colossians 2:8-10

October 18, 2020

Guideline:

Before you begin, pray. Ask God to enlighten you, to show you where he has been at work and present in your past week through events, places, and people. Ask Him to enliven and guide your group in your reading and discussion.

Next, read aloud and slowly Colossians 2:8-10. As you can, take turns and read aloud these verses again, this time from a different bible translation.

For starters:

In times of stress or difficulty, what “fills your “tank”?”

How do you feel about social media? When does it serve people well? When does it not?

See the following questions that may assist you in your discussion of the Scripture.

1. What is a point or two that stayed with you from the message this past Sunday, October 25, “Lessons in Faith from a Dying Lake Part 2”?

2. How do you discern what is true? What is not true?

3. What are common obstacles people have when considering to accept Christ as God? In what ways have you come to understand and believe in Christ as God’s son and Lord of all?

4. Put into your own words what Paul was saying about the fullness of Christ dwelling inside of believers; each person shares with the group.

5. In what way do you struggle with understanding how the power of God lives inside of you?

6. Does God have full authority in your life? In what ways do you struggle with giving him total control over you?

7. How can the group pray for you to relinquish control and help hold you accountable in the areas mentioned above?
