Colossians 3:1-4

November 15, 2020

Before you begin:

Pray and ask God to enlighten you, to show you where he has been at work and present in your past week through events, places and people. Ask Him to enliven and guide your group in your reading and discussion.

Next, read aloud and slowly Colossians 3:1-4. As you can take turns and read aloud these verses again, this time from a different bible translation.

For starters:

During the pandemic, what “gets on your nerves”?

Conversely, what has helped you not be bothered or brought you life?

See the following questions that may assist you in your discussion of the Scripture.

1. What is a point or two that stayed with you from the message this past Sunday, November 15, “Seeking the Things Above”?
2. In what ways, or by what rules, have you ever tried to justify your “earthly things” behavior? How have those worked for you?
3. When the pressure is really on, and your flesh begins to show itself, what do you try to do to alter course?
4. What difference does it make to you that you have died with Christ, and that you have been raised with Christ? How does that work itself out in all of your relationships?
5. How do your goals or ambitions reflect your position in Christ?
6. How can we set or reset our hearts and minds on things above rather than on earthly things? How can you cultivate this desire?
7. Paul has shown the necessary blending of our emotions, will, and mind in order to live like people who have been raised with Christ. Pray for Help in the area where you are weak. Spend time thanking God for the changes he has already made in your life.
